

Project Based Computer Studies Evaluation

For TEJ and ICS classes

Over 85% - Exceed Success Criteria

You have used what you have learned in areas outside of our class (Run Workshops, use in other classes)

You have Presented your work in creative ways (Video, poster etc...)

You have exceeding the Success Criteria on all projects

You consistently help others in the class and school

* Other?

85% - Success Criteria for the Course

You have completed all the required projects and reflections.

You have actively participated in class activities and discussions.

You were an active member in all groups and teams you were part of.

You have missed less than 10 days of class

You have met the Success Criteria of the culminating activity.

70% - Missing Something

You have completed most of the required projects and reflections

You usually sat on the sidelines during group projects

You missed more than 5 days of class per month

You have met the Success Criteria of the culminating activity

60% - Not Disruptive or Productive

You have completed some projects

You have not completed any reflections

You usually come to class most of the time and tend to just do your own thing that is loosely related to something we're doing.

You may sometimes help others with their projects

50% Missing Much

You have partially completed some projects

You have not completed any project reflections.

You have missed less than 10 days of class

You have completed a modified culminating activity

Less than 50% - Did not Participate

You have not completed any projects

You have missed more than 10 classes

You have not completed a culminating activity